

Industrial visit was organized by Electronics and Instrumentation Department to AGIT on 07/04/2017 with an objective to learn process automation and batch processing, industrial data networking protocol, DCS, SCADA stuffs related to automation industry. The visit helped students to understand the overall processes and working procedure of industry and gave an active insight into practical aspects of process automation.

The Department of Electronics and Instrumentation Engineering was conducted Social Activity on Dengue-H1N1 at Shaineshwara Temple, Guttahalli on 08/04/2017 in association with Enablers united conducted an awareness among the citizens regarding the causes, symptoms, simple preventive measures and facilities available for treatment of Dengue fever and Swine flu

The Department of Electronics and Instrumentation Engineering was conducted a Technical Talk on Signaling & Communication in Process Automation focus on Ethernet + Wireless communication by Sathish Balasubramaniam, Yokogawa on 21/04/2017

The Department of Electronics and Instrumentation Engineering was conducted Internal Project presentation to final year students for selecting the best project

